ALL SORTS.

The road to Tahoe from Truckee is not yet open.

Is Carson going to have a good baseball club this season. Some big cat-fish are being yanked out of Washoe Lake.

State Controller Horton returned Sunday from San Francisco.

For SALE—A 5x8 camera and outfit. Enquire at this office. ml lw

Theo. Winters has returned from San Francisco to his home in Washoe Valley.

Four tramps hit the town yesterday, and it wasn't a very good day for tramps, either.

Dr. Herdan made his weekly visit to Carson yesterday and returned to Reno last evening.

It is reported that a special train will be run to Virginia the night Thatcher's minstrels perform.

Odds off five to four are being bet on Jackson against Corbett in San Francisco and two to one in Chicago.

Furlong, of the Carson Gun Club, will now wear the Club medal, having won it the requisite number of times.

G. W. Grover has severed his connection with the Elko Independent, and W. W. Boelter assumes control.

American detectives have proven too much for the Whitechapel fiend, and Jack the Ripper is now a prisoner in New York. Poor old Chicago!

The Queen of the Sandwich Islands likes the English better than the Americans. Well! Now we will annex her little old ten-cent kingdom.

Oliver Roberts went fishing Sunday out to Washoe Lake, accompanied by his wife. They brought home a dozen or two fish; Mrs. Roberts catching them all.

The baseball game between the Empire and Carson kids resulted in the tie of ten and ten in the ninth inning but Empire got away with the tenth inning.

Carson people are returning from San Francisco. The two questions asked them are "Did you see Bernhardt?" and "Did you see the President?" The first question is asked the most.

Justice Lang let two tramps go yesterday with the stipulation that they leave town before this morning. Sheriff Botsford curtailed the time to 4 o'clock yesterday. They should have been put to work on the street, and the county given a chance to get even on the Justice's fees.

A Washoe Indian committed suicide yesterday by eating wild parsnip, which is almost as deadly as prussic acid. He had trouble with his wife and the Indians say he couldn't whip her, as she was the better man of the two. He was arrested and discharged, and since then kept aloof from the Indians, who say his name was Sa-he and that he was about 27 years of age.

C. H. King, of San Francisco, is the happy possessor of four colts by Richard's Election. The youngsters are of royal breeding, and Mr. King has been anxious to have them go before the world properly named. So when the divine Sarah Bernhardt arrived he made up his mind that that famous lady should name them, and he went to work laying wires to have her perform the job. He had the colts brought to the city, and the great actress looked them over and the next day sent the following note to Mr. King:

Mons. King: I give you with pleasure the four names for your beautiful colts. The dames Cleopatra and Theodora; the horses Marc Antoine and Justinian. Sincerely yours, SARAH BERNHARDT.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

THE AUSTRALIAN SYSTEM.

Every Body in Carson Satisfied With It.

Yesterday saw the first election in this State held under the Australian ballot system.

In spite of all the complications people had in their minds over the matter, the thing seems very simple when you come to try it, and there was no trouble.

It is decided by everybody that there is no chance for intimidation vote purchasing or fraud. The election passed off very quietly. The following is the result:

FIRST WARD.

Hofer	196
Olcovich	112
Klein	145
Votes rejected	16

SECOND WARD.

Hofer	141
Olcovich	66
Wagner	87
Wooley	129
Votes rejected	21

This reflects the old Board.

COAST NEWS.

Captain Davly has been arrested for the murder of F. Bauer-Schmidt at Dogtown last Monday.

Cattle thieves are at work around Jamul, in Southern California. The other night they killed eight steers stripped off their hides, and left the carcasses lying in the ravine near the cement works.

Acting Secretary Willard of Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce reports that 100,000 persons visited the orange exhibition in Chicago. The gross receipts were $12,500, but expenses had been large.

The estate left by the ex-Governor is valued at $800,000, and the heirs named are: Mrs. J. G. Waterman, his wife; Mary P. Race of New York; Helen J. Waterman and Annie C. Waterman, his children. The witnesses to the signature are Helen J. Waterman, Elmer E. Rowell and C. W. C. Rowell.

A man named Smith, at Gilman, Wash., acted in a queer manner and the miners, believing he was hired to create public prejudice against them, so that guards would be sent to the mines, seized the man, tied a rope around his neck and swung him twice to the limb of the tree. Smith finally confessed that a man named Brundage had sent him from Seattle to set fire to a building owned by Brundage. He was then let down, taken to Seattle and locked up.

IF.

Yesterday morning as John G. Lewis of the Third Street Market, Oroville, Cal, was skinning a calf hanging on a rack in front of his shop, one of the stirrup hooks became loose and swung down inflicting a very ugly cut just above his eye, tearing away a large portion of his eyebrow. Had the sharp instrument struck one-half an inch lower it would have destroyed the eye entirely.—Exchange.

If Mr. Lewis had been half an inch taller, the same result would probably have ensued.

Records Broken.

The six-year-and-a-half furlong race between Rinfax and Geraldine, which was run at San Francisco Thursday, was won by Rinfax. Time, 1:20 1/4, which beats the records by one and a quarter seconds.

Hotspur also broke the records in the mile and three-quarters handicap, winning it in 3:00 1/4. The records for that distance has stood ten years at 3:01.

Looking For the Barrel.

Yesterday a man who voted an Australian ballot for the first time, went to the Second Ward polls and after carefully making out his ticket saw three empty barrels near by and dropped it into the middle one, amid a howl from the bystanders. He works in the V. & T. shops.

War has broken out in San Francisco between Chas. Whitmore President of the Viticultural Society and Geo. Barnes. Whitmore insists that Barnes ignored the wine interests of California by not putting California wines on the menu. Blood is expected to flow.

THIS IS THE PRESIDENT.

How the Crowd was made to Cheer in Proper Style.

A gentleman of this city who occupied a position a little to the right and rear of the Presidential party in the Mechanic's Pavilion in San Francisco on Saturday evening, relates the following incident as having occurred. The people had been filing by in multitudes for an hour or more, their faces uplifted to the President, some with hats and hands aloft and countenances beaming with smiles, while there was an occasional cheer. Finally there was a middle-aged gentleman just in front of the witness, who had been seated on the back of a bench, arose and roared out. Why in h—l don't you fellows cheer with some style about you. This is the President of the United States. Now three cheers with a hip, hip hurrah!" It is needless to say that the rafters rung with response. Postmaster-General Wanamaker looked serious, the President quietly bit his lip—a general murmur of merriment ran through the immediate attendants of the President, and Governor Markham looked at the middle-aged man with a smile of approval, as much as to say, "You are a brick."

The Catholic Mission.

Rev. Father Tubman, of Virginia City, addressed a large congregation at St. Teresa's Church Sunday, on "The Church and The Age." He was listened to throughout with rapt attention.

He said this is an age of fair, open, candid unbelief which, though dignified and disguised by other titles is a religious skepticism which explains nothing and cannot be brought into harmony with any kind of a fixed faith. The world especially, the half-educated portion has decided there is no one fixed and certain truth. What therefore must be its attitude toward any institution which puts itself forward as the organ of truth? One of hostility certainly. Is there such an institution? There is—the Church. The Church and the 19th century, therefore, are enemies. For let the world put on what garb of impartiality it will, it knows it cannot be one with religion. Its principles and aims are entirely opposite, and yet never before in the history of the world did it have more need of the restraining influence of the Church to stem the flood of human passions.

Rev. Father Tubman will preach every evening at 7:30 p. m. during the week.
